

CHANGING MINDS CAMPAIGN
in collaboration with Jail Brakers and the Unitarian Universalist Congregation Social Justice Committee is pleased to present:
A DAY AT STATEVILLE

A Day at Stateville is a play illustrating newcomers first day as an inmate at Stateville Correctional Facility. This play was developed by inmates who are currently facing life sentences without the possibility of parole. This play's objective is to inspire community leaders to take action to decrease the increasing number of youths entering the prisons and to advocate the improvement of prisons current conditions.

Unitarian Universalist Congregation 5603 BullValley Road, McHenry IL

Sunday February 24th at 2:00PM

Musical Performance by The Siblings proceeding the program

$10 suggested donation

